Client Testimonials ”

When we have had projects that required additional resources and expertise when it comes to CGMP or general quality management, The GMP Collective is who we go to. The wide variety of expertise their team brings to the table, from food safety, quality control, and passion for the cannabis industry, has helped many of our clients pass and maintain both food safety and cGMP certifications.

— Tim Gunther, ILoveCompliance.biz

We have known David for quite some time before we engaged on a professional basis – his knowledge, professionalism and most of all, his passion for the plant and his projects is obvious and very much appreciated.

— Sean Samuel, C15 Solutions Inc

The GMP Collective, along with its partners and associates, has demonstrated unequivocal adherence to its mission of creating a credible cannabis marketplace. Beyond being a good friend of ours for many years, David is a professional and a valuable asset for any organization looking to elevate the quality of the cannabis industry.

— Aaron G. Biros, CannabisIndustryJournal.com

GMP collective provides a steady hand of counsel to their clients. Especially in the cannabis industry where incumbent compliance knowledge is not a given, clients need the level of service David brings to the table and demands from his peers. Isolocity has benefited immensely from the past 24 months of interactions with GMP Collective.
